1. Waiver of Privilege

If the Company instructs any lawyer to investigate or defend any claim against the Insured, the Insured authorises the lawyer to provide to the Company any documents, information or advice in respect of the claim, including in relation to indemnity, and the Insured waives any privilege to the extent necessary to give full effect to the Company's entitlement in this respect.

2. Cancellation

This policy may be cancelled by the Insured by surrender to the Company or any of its authorised agents, or by sending to the Company written notice stating the date on which the cancellation shall be effective. This policy may be cancelled by the Company, by sending to the Insured at the address shown in this policy written notice stating the date on which, being not less than thirty (30) days, the cancellation shall be effective. The time of surrender, or the effective date and time of cancellation, stated in the notice shall become the end of the Period of Insurance.

If the Insured cancels, earned premium shall be computed in accordance with the customary short rate table and procedure.

3. Policy Jurisdiction

This Policy shall be governed by the law of New Zealand, the courts of which shall have exclusive jurisdiction.

4. Other Insurance

If there is any other valid and collectable insurance covering all or part of the same loss under any Section of this policy, then coverage under that Section will only apply to the amount in excess of that recoverable or in fact recovered under the other insurance, whether such insurance is stated to be primary or excess, unless such other insurance is written only as specific excess insurance over the Limit of Indemnity under that Section.

This condition applies even if the other insurance has a condition to the same effect as above.

5. Goods and Services Tax

(a) Where the Insured or any Insured Person or Officer is liable to pay tax under the Goods and Services Tax Act 1985 (or any statutory amendment or re-enactment of the Act) on receiving any payment under this Policy, the Company will indemnify the Insured or the Insured Person or the Officer for the cost of that tax.

(b) The amount payable under this condition is payable by the Company in addition to the Limit of Indemnity for the applicable Section as stated in the Certificate.
